THE SITE: www.cookingwithamy.blogspot.com

WHAT'S THERE: Amy Sherman of San Francisco has a beautiful Web site filled with recipes, restaurant and product reviews, contest links and her blogs about cooking, traveling and eating.

A SAMPLE: Pepper is such a common ingredient, it's easy to not give it a second thought. But seeing it grown (in Phu Quoc, just off the coast of Cambodia), and, fortunately for me, seeing it harvested, is something I'll never forget. The berries are only harvested once a year, so I can't believe my luck in being there just in time.
